The Mathematical Formula Calculator
Based on the text you provided, here is a summary:
Mathsol-Website is an open-source, client-side platform built with HTML, CSS, and JavaScript that allows users to solve math problems online. It provides instant, step-by-step solutions for topics like algebra, calculus, and matrix operations directly in the browser without server interaction. The site is designed for students and enthusiasts to practice math, understand concepts, and encourage self-study.

Simple Calculator 🔗   12/2023 – 12/2023
A basic calculator project with a simple interface for instant addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division, often used as an educational example for programming fundamentals.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Google Gemini Student Ambassador   08/2025 – Present | Tiruvallur

Google Gemini Student Ambassador | Google Selected as Google Gemini Student Ambassador, I led a 6-month program to build a campus AI community. I organized workshops, training over students in AI for coding and research. I acted as the primary student-Google liaison, providing direct community feedback to inform product development.

Unstop Campus Ambassador   08/2025 – Present | Tiruvallur

Unstop Campus Ambassador | Unstop Selected as a campus leader to be the primary liaison between Unstop and Prathyusha Engineering College. I built and managed a student community at Prathyusha Engineering College. I organized workshops and hackathons, driving competition participation via social media and club collaborations. I served as the primary liaison, developing skills in leadership, marketing, and event management.
